The other party called up was Frank Lazier, who raised a muss down at a saloon on Water street. The evidence valuable furniture presented by him to this Post. and its agent, Capt. J. H. Holmes, for herself and husband. Although wit-showed that Lexier was rather importunate in his demands for benzine, and when remonstrated with showed signs of comba tiveness. It was further shown that having no money to give in exchange for his lavorite beverage, he insisted that the proprietor of the coffee house should give him the thirst-creating fluid. The oft repeated demand becoming irksome, Lazier was ejected into the street. Selzing two boulders he made demonstrations as if is about to ventilate the room by knocking holes through the windows, but he retrained, contenting himself by giving vent to his pent-up feelings in curses loud and deep. His Honor taxed him five dollars and costs. Not having the stamps, he was committed to jail. too it can be said of him that he rejected all praise that would place him before others in any other light than that in which he had long rejoiced to stand before God, as a ponitent sinner saved by grace. But that grace was in him so winningly manifested—there was in him so much to admire, that it seems due to the glory of the grace of God, that his noble character be kept in constant remembrance. In union with the living vine, he brought forth heavenly fruit in richness and abundance. He studied the character of Jesus, It was his daily prayer to know more of FRUIT PUDDING—Take one cup each of sweet milk, suet, (minced.) raisins, currants and molasses. YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly fell, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parenus, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and induging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating

before contemplating

MARRIAGE,
reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASES OF IMPRIDENCE.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votaty of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-limed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who from education and respectability, can alone betriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcarated sore throat disease once, notturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a borrid object of commiscration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by isending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."
